

Leanne Puttick, Conductor

Biography

Leanne discovered her love for music at age 4, tinkering away at the piano. She took up flute at age 9, picked up violin at age 11 and began composing at age 14. Composition pushed her to teach herself as many instruments she could get her hands on while completing her secondary education. She went on to complete her Bachelor of Music: Composition and Music Technology at the West Australian Academy of Performing Arts, graduating in 2015.

It wasn't until 2016 after completing several composition masterclasses in Austria with notable Hollywood film composers, that Leanne fell under the spell of the baton. After returning from her time abroad, she shadowed Maestro Myron Romanul with the West Australian Ballet and discovered her passion for conducting.

Leanne has a great love and passion for the stage having studied ballet from age 7 into her teens and having worked across theatres in Western Australia as a sound technician and as a stage manager.

Leanne is currently the orchestra librarian for the West Australian Symphony Orchestra.
